this is a helpful narrative critical study of the johannine passion and resurrection account after a brief introduction heil shows how scenes in the narrative are arranged in sets with each scene providing a contrast to the scenes that surround it these alternating scenes involve the implied reader in an interplay of competing or complementary narrative themes jesus resurrection plays a central role in the narrative and theology of john s gospel in these essays leading johannine scholars explore the relationship of jesus resurrection to his signs crucifixion and the faith of later generations the embodied quality of the resurrection and its importance for johannine eschatology and life within the christian community receive special attention studies explore the interplay between the farewell discourses and the resurrection narratives the role of john 21 jesus ascension and jesus commission to forgive and retain sins the essays give a rich sense of the many facets of jesus resurrection and its importance for the study of john s gospel and christian theology book jacket in new perspectives on healing restoration and reconciliation in john jacobus kobus kok investigates the depth and applicability of jesus healing narratives in john s gospel against the background of an ancient group oriented worldview it goes beyond the impasse of most western approaches to interpreting the biblical healing narratives to date he argues that the concept of healing was understood in antiquity as in some parts of africa in a much broader way than we tend to understand it today he shows inter alia why the interaction between jesus and the samaritan woman could be interpreted as a healing narrative illustrating the ancient interrelationship between healing restoration and reconciliation what is death why do we die and what happens after we die over the centuries philosophers and theologians of the world s religions have offered answers to the dilemma of death yet this subject is rarely given the detailed attention it deserves in the contemporary christian church as christians how does our view of death impact the communication of the gospel in today s pluralistic societies in this study dr bobby bose not only develops a solid biblical theology of death he also reviews the teachings of contemporary and historical christian theologians around the world and examines the state after death beliefs of hindus muslims and secular humanists the author shows that state after death was a central component of conversation in the early church and is also a major component of god s mission to rescue humanity as the east converges with the west it is vital that christians develop a missiological approach to state after death that will encourage positive engagement with people of other faiths and beliefs amidst the trials and uncertainties of individual human lives the life death and resurrection of jesus can sometimes seem like a great play written by god where the actors are assigned fixed parts yet this is to make a travesty out of these great events in entering our world and sharing its suffering in jesus god accepts the uncertainty and unpredictability which are part of the human lot the resurrection of jesus is a sign of unexpected hope beyond final despair jesus is the true bread of life come down from heaven his flesh his true humanity is our bread of life this he gives for the life of the world we are in him no longer the sinful and death bound sons of fallen adam but the just and life bound people of the last adam christ gives us his flesh his glorious humanity so that we are remade into people of righteousness and eternal life in this commentary the author maps out the glorious gospel of john starting from the obvious parallel to genesis 1 in the beginning was the word and through to the glorious conclusion of christ s death and resurrection nothing more clearly reveals the gospel than christ s atoning death and his resurrection they tell us that jesus christ has destroyed the power of sin and death john therefore deliberately limits the number of miracles he reports in order to point to and concentrate on our lord s death and resurrection the jesus of history is he who made atonement for us died and was resurrected his life cannot be understood apart from this nor can we know his history in any other light this is why john s testimony is true and while books filling the earth could not contain all that could be said the testimony given by john is faithful
